

Learning for a better world –

Whose voice counts?

Learning for Sustainability Scotland's Annual Gathering

January 18th 2018, Godfrey Thomson Hall, University of Edinburgh
Programme

10:00 Arrival, coffee/tea & registration

10:30 Learning for Sustainability- an Update – Rehema White, Pete Higgins and Betsy King

Welcome and introductions

Update on the National and Global context for Learning for Sustainability

Update from LfS Scotland: Annual Report including Task Group updates

Electing new LfS Scotland Steering Group members

Round table discussions on LfS Scotland priorities in the coming year, ways you can be involved and develop your own work and interests

11:45 Widening the Conversation – whose voice counts?

Presentation by Joyce McMillan, Scottish theatre critic, journalist and commentator and President of Scottish Environment LINK

Round table discussions

Plenary

12.15 NETWORKING LUNCH

13.00 Interactive workshops: no need to choose you can attend both.

Workshop 1 LfS and the UN Sustainable Development Goals: Contributing to the Education component of the UKSSD Stakeholder led Action Plan: May East, UNITAR Fellow and Betsy King, LfS Scotland

Workshop 2 Engaging Young People in Sustainability: Rebecca Petford, EAUC Scotland and Marie Duguid, Young Scot

14:20 Key points and looking ahead

14:30 A further chance to network with colleagues & friends old and new – should you wish