MIGRATION IS ALL OUR HISTORIES Higher Geography: Population Topic

My Migration Story by: Faye

My Great uncle jimmy lived in Dufftown then moved to Edinburgh looking for work. Forty six years ago he saw an add in the newspaper in Edinburgh looking for a coppersmith in Auckland New Zealand. He got the job and has lived in Auckland ever since, now owning his own coppersmith business JRM engineering. My Grandad was born and lived in Sulisbury. He met my granny at a dance and they moved to Dufftown looking for a

Explore Global Citizenship

Are you a teacher in Scotland looking for resources to support your teaching in Global Citizenship and Learning for Sustainability?

Signposts is our selection of the best resources available - relevant to the curriculum, tried and tested by teachers in Scotland and updated regularly. All resources on Signposts are available online and can usually be borrowed from your local Development Education Centre (Global Learning Centre). We hope to be able to resume our lending library services soon. In the meantime, many of the print resources are available to purchase from online bookshops.

Whether you need advice on resources, or want support with teaching rights, equality, diversity or any other aspect of Global Citizenship Education, the education advisors at your local Centre are happy to help.

And if you're wondering what Global Citizenship is all about, find out more here!
