

Scotland's
Young
People's Forest

Objective 1: We will manage and regenerate various areas of land as forest sanctuaries for native Scottish wildlife

Objective 2: We will create outdoor spaces for young people to reconnect with nature and build places to enjoy for their own health and wellbeing

Objective 3: We will create welcoming forested places that are inviting and accessible

Objective 4: We will create inspiring spaces for young people to explore the connectedness of natural and cultural heritage through arts and technology both ancient and modern

Objective 5: We will enable and empower other young people to take action on the climate and nature emergency

Scotland's Young People's Forest

Scotland's Young People's Forest Panel is a group of young people with a vision to create the first forest in Scotland, co-designed, led and governed by young people. Find out more about the project, hear from volunteers and learn how you can make the most of your local forest.

The project is supported by Young Scot and YouthLink Scotland – alongside founding partners Corra Foundation, NatureScot, Pears Foundation, Scottish Enterprise and Wood.
